

1) With the notions you have been presented, how would you construct a network to model an epidemiological phenomenon? Think at the vertices, links, directed/undirected, components...
Help yourself graphically

2) What happens when you vaccinate? Reason both with respect to the model you previously formulated in the group and to the one now proposed.
Reason both locally and globally